Aarvi Encon

A GLOBAL NAME IN MANPOWER OUTSOURCING FOR INDUSTRIES

Jaydev Sanghavi,
Executive Director

Pointing out the driving factors of Outsourcing in core Industries, Jaydev Sanghavi, Executive Director of Aarvi Encon says, "Outsourcing of non-core activity is followed all across country right from basic office printing to O&M of the plant. Industry like Chemical, Renewable energy, Power plant have been aggressive in outsourcing the O&M activities. Market size may be upward of 2,000 cr. Personally, I feel that this will grow with time. Major advantage to company is price and quality service".

Practicing its expertise on O&M of Tank Terminals, Aarvi Encon is one of the top three service providers in India.. Aarvi Encon is also leading Technical Manpower Supply Company which provides staffing services across different verticals for both permanent and temporary positions. Headquartered in Mumbai, and established in 1987, Aarvi Encon has three decades of experience in being ace Manpower consultants in Oil & Gas, refinery, Renewable Energy in India and abroad. The firm has been operating and maintaining Crude Tank Terminal for more than 7 years in India.

The quality and efficiency of work at site is major driving factor for AarviEncon. Aarvi's pulpit of success stands on 4 pillars - People, Culture, and Quality& Banking. The firm gives utmost importance to honesty and ethics. Aarvi follows the law of land and makes sure all the compliances are adhered to including Insurances, pF, ESI, and labour rules. The company has maintained a culture of work and play. The office environment is lit up on occasions like Birthdays & Wedding anniversaries, annual picnics and get-together parties. Due importance is given to achieve the best work life balance.

Excellent service Quality is yet another priority for Aarvi as the firm sternly believes that on time and quality services truly makes an organization stand out from competitors. At Aarvi, turnaround time is fast. The firm ensures that the right candidate is proposed to the client at the right budget and in the least possible time. Aarvi is a SME -1 certified by CRISIL which represents the highest creditworthiness. Liquidity facility from the top three reputed banks in India puts Aarvi at an advantage in dealing with unprecedented financial crisis.

The Workforce and the Learning Curve

Company has a strong recruitment team with domain knowledge in engineering. Aarvi Encon also has an inhouse data base of 700,000 unique databases. Aarvi Encon deployed more than 50,000 engineers in the last 20 years.
